Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

We greet you with gratefulness for your prayers, support and blessing to our ministry!

Recently, we held our Annual Anniversary Conference, near Seattle, on the 19-20th of November. On Saturday, about 300 guests gathered around a delicious Ukrainian meal to hear the missionaries and pastors from Ukraine and Argentina give their reports. It was a time of strong encouragement and warm fellowship for all, as old friends and co-workers were reunited. The lovely women's music group blessed us, as did the up to date video of Good Samaritan's year's work.

Pastor Anatoliy Borisovets (Argentina)

The closing convicting call to service, brought by a fiery young preacher, with prayers for the Radchuk families, for Peter Radchuk's back condition, and the continuing work of Good Samaritan completed the evening, leaving everyone on a high spiritual plane. If you have never been, please consider coming next November. The English speakers were fitted with listening devices and all was interpreted for them.

Pastors and missionaries reunited at the conference.

The second part of the conference was an evening service at Slavic Christian Center in Tacoma. Pastors and missionaries spoke, sharing their triumphs and struggles. Then they prayed over young men and women committing them to the ministry and missions. There were many outstanding singing groups and the showing of the "Good Samaritan" Ministry video for 2011. The evening was concluded with a message from the Word and prayer for all partners and supporters of "Good Samaritan" Ministries.

Soon after the blessing of these days and the Thanksgiving holiday, a team of men and three women, under the leadership of Peter Radchuk, left for India where we have ongoing work with orphanages and churches. Please pray for them as you receive this letter, that they might bring much fruit for the Lord. May God guide them on their journey. The team is scheduled to return on December 19th.

Thank you,
"Good Samaritan" Ministries Staff
